

A Treasure Hunt in Saint Gaudens!

For Kids Aged 8 to 12

Play the apprentice lord and discover Saint-Gaudens!

Ready for the challenge?
Let's get started!

YOUNG LORD, WELCOME !

Blessed one ! You have been chosen by the Steward of Saint-Gaudens to uncover the legacy of the town's past!

In the ruler's absence, the Steward stands in his stead, bearing the noble's power. Now, young lord, you serve under his command !

Great is your duty, yet be not overwhelmed. Show wit and wisdom, and you shall piece together the story of the town.

Make haste, your adventure awaits!

Chart of the lands

I bestow upon you this map, so you may wander
the town with sure steps.

Saint-Pierre Collegiate Church

Near the Tourist Office stands a church, marked by a cross that soars heavenward. Just beneath the cross, on the small tower, the figure of an animal appears.

Can you discern what it is?

☐ A cow

☐ A lamb

☐ A horse

☐ A bear

☐ A dog

Saint-Pierre Collegiate Church

In the heart of the church, a door opens onto the cloister. This holy place was once reserved for the men of the church alone. Known as the "Garden of Silence," it echoed only with the whisper of their footsteps. The cloister acted as a bridge, linking the various parts of the church.

On the capitals, animals are hidden in the stone. Can you name three of them?

A Drop of Wisdom:

The capital is the carved part found at the top of a pillar or column.

Monument of the Three Marshals

In 1950, the mayors of Saint-Gaudens and Valentine passed a resolution. To honor three marshals of the Pyrenees : Foch, Gallieni, and Joffre, and all the soldiers who fought alongside them in the First World War.

Find out who these hands belong to!

Monument of the Three Marshals

I challenge you to say on which side these animals appear, the Gallieni side or the Joffre side?

Viewpoint Indicator

Step forth to the Monument of the Three Marshals.

You hear a murmur coming from the viewpoint indicator.

Peer with utmost care... What animal is it portraying ?

Connect the dots and the secret shall be revealed !

A Drop of Wisdom:

Coat of arms :

It's a group of emblems that tells the story of a family, a people, or a town.

Painting from the St. Thérèse School

Here's what you're looking for...

Venture along Bepmale Boulevard, near the bridge leading to the parking lot, where a painting lies in wait. Crafted by the Sainte-Thérèse School, it invites your eyes and curiosity.

Can you name three things you recognize within it?

Along Bepmale Boulevard, before you reach the media library, seek an impressive abode. Its roof gleams with a hue familiar in villages near the mountains.

Tell me, from where do you think these materials were quarried?

From the scrolls of time...

Behold these dark roofs, clad in slate!

From the mountains close by, they stand firm against wind, rain, and time. Strong, fair, and true to this land, the builders chose most wisely indeed!

The "Soleilhos"

At the corner of Bepmale Boulevard and "Azémar" Boulevard, stands a building crowned with a balcony on its uppermost floor.
Which way is it facing?

Here's what you need to find...

☐ South

☐ East

☐ North

☐ West

A Drop of Wisdom:

These "Soleilhos," open galleries atop houses, once served many purposes : drying clothes and animal skins, storing provisions, and occasionally even housing farm animals !

Create your own coat of arms,
invent your colors and symbols

Grab a pencil and complete your church !
